

I am opposed to the proposed change in broadcast ownership rules. I feel that it will hurt competition and the freedom of Americans to have access to a diversity of information and culture.